Description

Our clients have been asking — and we're listening! River Valley Kennels is looking for a dog groomer interested in operating their own grooming business within our established boarding kennel in Osceola, Wisconsin.

Many of our boarding clients have asked if we offer grooming services, creating a built-in opportunity for the right groomer to grow their clientele while operating their own business.

What We Provide

- Dedicated grooming space within our established kennel
- Professional grooming table and tub — we'll purchase them and want YOUR input on the equipment you prefer
- Office/check-in space for your grooming clients with established software
- An existing and growing base of boarding clients who are already asking for grooming services
- Opportunity for ongoing referrals from our boarding clients
- Negotiable rent — we're open to finding an arrangement that works well for both sides

This could be a great fit for a groomer looking for a new location or an experienced groomer who's ready to branch out on their own — without the expense of opening and equipping an entire grooming shop.

We're looking for someone who is dependable, experienced, great with dogs, and interested in building a long-term relationship alongside River Valley Kennels.
